Grace Discussion Group

November 9th & 23rd, Bad women of the bible - Leslie Lockhart

November 16th is about 1 week away. On that morning Grace Discussion Group will focus upon the outreach-over-the-years undertaken by parishioners...both as a part of Grace's activities, and in their own personal lives. The occasion is Linda/Ed's grant re: Grace as a Baptizing Community. We are commissioned to help others in our daily lives. Their hope is to celebrate what's been done in the past, and now is being done in the present ... and have many teenagers in the room to hear/share their work as well. Intergenerational. Also there will be a display of photos, etc. in the sanctuary on the wall near the baptismal font. ...a celebration of outreach... (also I need to figure out if, prior to Tom Lehman's arrival in 1959, there was a committee with the title: "Social Action"...)

What can you do for the November 16th Meeting?

- 1. Look for pictures to show/tell. If we can have the pictures 1-2 weeks in advance, I can help to make displays. You can put them in the "Historian" or "Clerk" mailbox in the Office, or give to me. (Example: Barbara Stock has agreed to interview Ida and to make a poster showing the work of the Church Service League). Rosie's? Can-Do? Cambodians? Help within the parish? Anti-Racism? Fair Housing? Refugee and Immigration Ministry? OxFam? Walk for Hunger? (and even GC delivering coal to John Halfrey's house during the Great Depression) etc...
- 2. Send me an e-mail recalling an example of outreach/social action (either by a Grace Church group, or by a person from Grace Church)...I'll write a "History Minute" for the church bulletin inviting folks to attend on Nov 16.
- 3. Come to Grace Discussion Group on Nov 16 (it's also St. Andrew's Day), and add your story/example to the discussion.

Thanks, Don
